

Shailendra V. Gokhale

Managing Partner – Rosefield DAA Int’l Consultancy LLP

B.E.(Mechanical),DMM,DITM

Expertise

Internationally renowned technical expert on Lubricants, Base Oils, Additives and Re-refined Base Oils(RRBO)

Immense experience in

Circular Economy, Value Engineering, M&A, Business Strategy, Supply Chain Management

Shailendra Gokhale is a highly experienced ‘Energy’ professional with a broad global experience and with major strengths in Lubricants Value Chain and Circular Economy in Used Oil. He is globally renowned and recognized expert in the global value chain of downstream and currently he advises some of the best Energy companies globally. He is a much sought-after speaker, having participated in various ICIS and other international conferences of Petroleum, Base oils, Lubricants and RRBO.

Shailendra has in excess of 29 years experience in the Lubricants industry. After working with Lubrizol India for 5 years, he moved to BP/Castrol India. Later he moved to UK, as a member of global leadership team at BP headquarters. After working for 17 years at senior leadership positions, Shailendra left BP in 2014 to start his own consultancy to work in the Energy sector. He leads energy practice for JV between Rosefield and DAA. Shailendra has to his credit consultancy assignments with Energy Major like PETRONAS, ENOC, Infineum, BP/Castrol, Brenntag, HPCL, Morris, Gulf Oil, Lanxess, Shell, Total and few MNCs. He is an external advisor to Boston Consulting Group (BCG). Shailendra has worked closely with NITI Aayog on Circular Economy for last 18 months.